

Warm Up (Sample Answers)

1. How much time do you spend revising your work? a. What do you mean by revising? (1 mark) b. I read it over on my way to handing it in. (2 marks) c. I basically re-write my essay again and sometimes revision takes longer than the first draft. (3 marks)
2. When you revise, what kinds of corrections will you make to improve your work? a. I work at improving the organization of the ideas and my grammar. (3 marks) b. I might fix a few typos or spelling mistakes before I submit it. (2 marks) c. I rarely change anything from my first draft. (1 marks).
3. Do you ever get help with your writing? a. Nope. I just do my best. (1 mark) b. I might look up some vocabulary or a point about grammar if I'm not sure. I might ask a friend how to do something like cite a source. (2 marks) c. I ask a tutor or a friend to read over my work and make comments and I review the course assignments to make sure I've done everything required. (3 marks)

- 9 marks - "Revision Expert" – You clearly appreciate the importance and function of revision as part of the writing process.
 - 6-8 marks "Considering Revision" – You probably know revision is a good idea, but you aren't committed to making it part of your writing process all the time.
 - 3-5 marks. "What is Revision?" – You consider an essay finished when you've typed the last word and you never want to look at it again! You need to be persuaded that revision is a significant part of the writing process.
-